DYNAMICS OF SPIRITUAL LIFE

AN EVANGELICAL THEOLOGY OF RENEWAL

In this expanded edition of a classic work of spiritual theology, historian Richard Lovelace presents a history of spiritual renewals in light of biblical models.

Lovelace examines such practical issues as renewal of the local congregation, ways revivals go wrong, prospects for closing the “sanctification gap,” the historical role of evangelical movements in promoting both unity and division, and Christian approaches to the arts. With scholarly and pastoral insight, he offers a powerful vision of renewal that can unify various models across traditions, combining individual and corporate spirituality, social activism, and evangelism.

RICHARD F. LOVELACE is emeritus professor of church history at Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary. He is the author of The American Pietism of Cotton Mather, Homosexuality and the Church, and Renewal as a Way of Life.

PAUL, APOSTLE OF GOD'S GLORY IN CHRIST

A PAULINE THEOLOGY

How should students of Scripture engage with discerning the shape of Paul's thought? In this second edition of a trusted resource, Thomas R. Schreiner seeks to unearth Paul's worldview by observing what Paul actually says in his writings and laying out the most important themes and how they are connected.

Schreiner explores themes such as the inclusion of the Gentiles in God's people, the power of sin, God's liberating work of grace, the unity of the church, and Paul as a missionary and his apostolic sufferings. While thoroughly informed by contemporary Pauline studies, Schreiner offers an accessible account of Paul's theology.

THOMAS R. SCHREINER is associate dean and James Buchanan Harrison Professor of New Testament Interpretation at The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Kentucky. His books include commentaries on Romans and Galatians, New Testament Theology, and The King in His Beauty.
